

Making Family Memories – Part 1 of 3

My wife Melissa and I made a decision 18 years ago that we'd be full-time parents to our kids.

We'd be home with them on a daily basis.

Not an easy decision to make because we knew we'd have to work for ourselves.

Back in early 1998, working "online" was a bit of a novelty ...

But today in 2016, there's no shortage of ways to create an online income.

Which brings me to our current situation ...

Our 15-year-old son ... Tanner!

He's never known a day where Mom and Dad have had to leave the house looking for work.

He's actually a "virtual" school student (meaning he, too, "works" from home).

We recently created a series of blog posts on "Why Virtual School" which you can see here.

So ... getting back to today!

I realized how blessed I am to really KNOW Tanner (and my wife, Melissa, for that matter!)

We checked into Saratoga Springs Resort here at Walt Disney World in Orlando, Florida.

(Here's a video of our "sweet" suite!)

It's only 112 miles door-to-door from our home in Sarasota, FL.

(Another decision from having a virtual business ... living where you love!)

Oh ... I got off track again!

Getting back to today ...

I realized while walking around the Magic Kingdom (and then the evening in Disney Springs) ...

Just how much fun the three of us had by being together, telling jokes, inspiring each other, and remembering all of the great moments we've had long-term together in our lives.

And ... taking in a great sunset halfway between the Magic Kingdom and Polynesian Village Resort! ☐

It's EXACTLY what Melissa and I saw for our family when we made the decision 18 years ago that'd be home with our kids and be able to see them grow up.

It's especially apparent here in Walt Disney World, where we see so many families, and also continue to see the inspiring messages from Walt Disney himself ...

That EVERY day is a GIFT!

May today be the day YOU, too, decide to be the primary influence in the upbringing of your kids/grandkids.

And/or ...

To start pursuing YOUR passions in life.

Our community of entrepreneurs can assist you in identifying what that is and show you a path of how to get from Point "A" (no clue) to "B" (on the path with an enthusiastic plan from your ideal location!)

When you join our team, you'll immediately receive access to our Fast Start Training which will set the stage for us to have a powerful conversation about your goals.

In the meantime, we'd love for you to share your thoughts on this topic in the comments below.
